

New York City Bus Trip: Two Amazing Exhibits

Metropolitan Museum of Art 11 AM – 1 PM

Exhibit: Public Parks, Private Gardens: Paris to Provence

Public Parks, Private Gardens: Paris to Provence will feature some 150 works by more than 70 artists, spanning the late eighteenth through early twentieth century. The important role of parks and gardens in French life is richly illustrated by paintings, drawings, photographs, prints, illustrated books, and objects in The Met collection by artists extending from Camille Corot to Henri Matisse, many of whom were gardeners themselves.

Salmagundi Club 2 PM – 4 PM

Exhibit: American Watercolor Society Annual Show

In its 151st year, The AWS Exhibition is arguably the world's premier watercolor exhibit. More than 1,200 artists from throughout the United States and 27 foreign countries submit their work to a panel of jurors chosen from Signature Members of the AWS. From these submissions (one per artist), the exhibition paintings are selected.
